I. Types and Quality of Writing

A. Modes of Writing: The three different modes or types of writing are:

1. ___Narrative________
2. ___Informative________
3. ___Persuasive________

B. PERSUASIVE WRITING: In persuasive writing, the writer takes a _____________________________ Position for or against____________________something.

1. The writer of a persuasive essay wants to ______convince________ the audience to believe or do something.
2. In ______advertisements____, there are a lot of persuasive arguments!
3. Persuasion needs to be based on__Facts____, so you need to do research.
4. Persuasive writing has a basic format:
   1. ___Introduction___ : where a position statement is made for or against
   2. ___Body_____ : where the facts are researched and presented (more than one paragraph!)
   3. ___Conclusion____ : where the information is summed up

C. NARRATIVE WRITING: Narrative writing is:

1. is told from a particular __Point-of-view____
2. makes and __supports/ proves__a point
3. is filled with precise __details____
4. uses ___descriptive__verbs and modifiers
5. uses conflict and sequence as does any story
6. may use __the pronoun “I” or dialogue___
7. Narrative Writing is often the mode used to tell a __Story__

D. INFORMATIONAL WRITING: Informational or Expository essays require that the writer:

1. Gives __Information____

2. __Describes or explains_ the topic or defines something.

3. Informational are best developed by the use of
   a. facts and statistical __information/ data____
   b. cause and effect relationships
   c. __Examples/ how-to do something_____

4. Since the essays are factual, they are written:
   a. without emotion
   b. usually written in the third person. (That means that the use of the pronoun "I" is __not__ usually found within the essay)

II. There are 5 categories on the Domain Writing Rubric:

A. Focus

B. Content

C. Organization

D. Style

E. Mechanics

III. Focus is the single __controlling point__ made with an awareness of task about a specific topic.

IV. Content: the __presence of ideas__ of facts, examples, anecdotes, details, opinions, statistics, reasons, explanations, and/or ideas.
V. Organization: the _sequence or order_ developed and sustained within and across paragraphs using transitional devices and including introduction and conclusion

VI. Style: the _choice and arrangement_ of words & sentence structures that create tone & voice

VII. Conventions: the use of _grammar and mechanics_: usage and sentence formation

VIII. You want to aim for a 4 on the rubric!

IX. Elements of Fiction

A. _Theme_: what the story is about; the main idea

B. Plot: the _sequence_ of events

C. This is the _plot diagram or structure_ of the story
   1. Exposition
   2. Complication: Categories are: Man vs. Man; Man vs. Self; Man vs. Nature
   3. Rising Action
   4. Climax
   5. Falling Action
   6. Resolution

D. Characters and Characterization: Characters are defined by their characteristics.

E. Setting: serves different functions in the action and often has an emotional effect on the reader. Sometimes, it can be a "character" itself.

F. Point of View
   1. _Omniscient_ - the author knows all the character & what they think and feel
   2. Limited omniscient or third person: the author tells the story from the viewpoint of just _one_ of the characters.
   3. _First person_: if the character narrates his or her own experience directly
G. Irony

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>TYPE OF IRONY</th>
<th>DEFINITION OF TYPE</th>
<th>EXAMPLE OF TYPE</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
| Dramatic Irony  | The audience knows more than the characters            | Jaws
                  |                                                        | Scary movie               |
| Situational Irony | When a situation or event ends the opposite way of what is expected. | Firehouse catches on fire |
| Verbal Irony    | Sarcasm
                  | Saying the opposite of what you mean                    | Right after Dan slams right into the back of the car in front of him, Sandy says, “Wow, you are a great driver Dan!” |

H. Theme:

The theme of the story is __the message__ the author portrays about the subject through the story.

It is important to note that the __Main idea/ Subject__ of a story is only one word (such as love), but the __Theme__ is a message about that one word (such as love conquers all).
In his sophomore year of high school, Michael Jordan tried out for the varsity basketball team at Laney High School in Wilmington, North Carolina. But at five feet and eleven inches tall, the coach believed that Jordan was too short to play at that level, so Jordan was cut from the team. Jordan didn't let this obstacle defeat him. In fact, it pushed him to work even harder. He trained vigorously and grew another four inches the following summer. When he finally made the varsity squad, Jordan averaged 25 points a game and went on to become one of the greatest basketball players in history.

What is the theme of the story? ___Never give up

I. Tone and Mood

1. Drawing the attention of his classmates as well as his teacher, the student dared to experiment with his professor's intelligence by interrogating him about the Bible.
   Tone__ aggressive/ serious / challenging____
   Context Clues__ interrogating and dared________________
   Mood__ serious/ suspenseful____

2. She huddled in the corner, clutching her tattered blanket and shaking convulsively, as she feverishly searched the room for the unknown dangers that awaited her.
   Tone___ worried/ scared____________
   Context Clues__ dangers, unknown, huddled, shaking, clutching, feverishly__
   Mood_ fear/ suspense/ worried____________

3. Gently smiling, the mother tenderly tucked the covers up around the child's neck, and carefully, quietly, left the room making sure to leave a comforting ray of light shining through the opened door should the child wake.
   Tone_ caring/ comforting________
   Context Clues__ gently, quietly, tenderly, comforting______
   Mood_ sentimental/ loving/ comforting ______________

X. Author's purpose: what is the author trying to convey?

![Author's Purpose Diagram]

XI. Types of Sentences:

A. Simple Sentence: contains one subject (or one compound subject) and one verb.

   Ex. I walked to the store to buy peas and carrots.

B. Compound Sentence: contains two simple sentences joined by a comma and conjunction or a semicolon.

   Ex. I walked to the store to buy peas and carrots, but I realized I forgot my bag.

C. Complex Sentence: contains at least one dependent clause and one independent clause.

   Ex. Because it was nice outside, I walked to the store.

D. Compound/Complex Sentence: is a mixture of all of the above.

   Ex. Because it was nice outside, I walked to the store to buy peas and carrots, but I realized I forgot my bag.
Name: ______________________________

English 10 – Midterm Review